

7 characteristics of False Teachers

They are the devil's messengers and ambassadors to deceive, delude and forever undo the souls of men. Acts 20:28-30,
II Corinthians 11:13-15, Ephesians 4:14

1. Men Pleasers-They preach to please the ear than to profit the heart.
2. They throw dirt at Christ's people- Paul had his ministry undermined and his reputation blasted by false teachers.
3. They are driven by their own heads and hearts. Jeremiah 14:14
4. They pass over the law and the gospel for other things- like game and money
5. They use clever language and appearances to disguise themselves. They know sugared poison goes down sweetly. They wrap up their soul killing pills in gold.
6. They strive to win people to their opinions by winning debates. They busy themselves about men's heads, their work is not to better the hearts of men. They are like their father the devil who spares no pains to gain followers.
7. They gain from their followers.
II Peter 2:1-3, Jeremiah 6:13
